

Note: This figure illustrates the distribution of mass-inclusive coalitions as thresholds vary from 0.5 to 0.75. Each bar represents the percentage of coalitions that include at least one mass-based social group or include no mass-based social group, demonstrating how sensitivity to group inclusion changes with different threshold settings.